Hey Y'all, this is your Elk Creek Chapter chairs, Katie Chesley and Faith Wheeler invitin' you to gather up your herd and get your boots out of quarantine... it's banquet time at the Ambassador on January 29th, 2022! Mark your calendars cause this will be a banquet you won't forget. We've been planning all year for y'all to have a grand time with some extravagant prizes and we are dusting off a few of your old favorite games, with room to add a few new ones. So kick back, relax and enjoy this sneak peek of what's to come...

To start things off, if you haven't noticed already, we have changed locations! The Elk Creek crew is getting bigger and needs some more space! We are tickled pink to have more space to bring y'all together. To add on top of that, we've got an open bar for the first hour of the doors open again and we even have some great NEW dinner options lined up to fill you right up!

Once again, we've got a great general raffle for y'all to have a chance at taking some killer prizes home! As the Sheriff always says, "Our prizes are the last ones in the USA." That comes into play this year with all those crazy supply chain problems going on! Our Elk Creek crew has some great ideas up their sleeve this year, including some one-of-a-kind package deals. Shoot your Shot in our Special Area on banquet night with a complete shooting package. If you're the winner you will be walking out the door ready to go with a full setup. You'll also see some popular brands and items coming back like YETI and our favorite, the backroad Amish furniture. We will have 25 Guns that night to get a chance on, and you might be one of the lucky winners. We've got something new for you all this year, now listen up... Sheriff Bucks. In case you forgot to bring some extra cash or you've simply run out, we have you covered. It's easy, swipe your card over at the cashier's table for however much you desire and get that amount in Sheriff Bucks to be used at games, or even pay for the live and silent auction! How nifty is that! If you've been to our banquet a time or two, you will remember the Elk Calls, which will be returning once again. With the elk calls, there will be 10 elk calls placed throughout the banquet. Some could be in the live auction or some could be in silent. If you receive an elk call, you will be entered in a drawing of a 1 in 10 chance to win a gun. On the night of the banquet keep your eyes out for those elk calls!
