GOLF OUTING

Elk Country Friends,

We invite you to join us for our annual KECA Golf Outing that will be held on Saturday July 9th, 2022 at an all-new location, the Gold Course at Treasure Lake near DuBois. This annual event directly benefits the KECA/ Seneca Resources Scholarship Fund which is granted annually to a Pennsylvania High School Senior that will be entering a secondary education program in an environmental field.

The KECA Golf Outing will sure to be a great day spent outdoors and your registration will include 18 holes of golf, usage of cart, complimentary beverages at designated Holes, and a buffet lunch to be served after Outing is completed. Registration for the event will open at 8am, with a Shotgun Scramble Start at 9am. Golfers are encouraged to pre-register as Foursomes or can participant as individual golfers as well.

We will also be featuring some exciting games and raffles throughout the course for added fun! You can expect games and raffles like the ever-popular PLINKO, a Vegas Hole with betting opportunities, Putting Contest, and even a shot at a hole 13 with our Hole in One Challenge! We will also have prizes for top golfers like Longest Drive, Longest Putt, and top Team CASH Prizes! All prizes and awards will be drawn or presented at the lunch following the outing.

Treasure Lake also is offering some great “Stay & Play” packages at the Fairfield Inn & Suites as well as the Crown Resort Condo’s within Treasure Lake. If you are interested in some of the lodging opportunities for the KECA Golf Outing, please contact the Treasure Lake Stay & Play Coordinator, Mandi, at 814-371-0711 ext. 116. She can provide options, details, and pricing.

Please keep in mind that the Gold Course at Treasure Lake is a privately owned course and some rules and regulations must be followed during this event.
