We are confident that you are ready for the 7th annual banquet, and we will be sure not to disappoint. We will be entertaining you with a variety of raffles that the Keystone Elk Country Alliance is famous for, and a few surprises of our own. We will have many beautiful items, too numerous to list, as well as some favorites, such as the Elk Mountain Homestead Rental with an awesome fall date for the weekend of October 19th thru October 22nd, 2023.

On the auction block this year and something you don't want to miss is a horse-drawn wagon ride for up to 22 people at the Elk Country Visitor Center on September 23, 2023 at 5:15 pm! This is a 45-minute ride through Elk country. Our Elk Calf Round Up will be on our live auction again this year. The winner and a guest will be accompanying PA Game Commission Elk Biologist, Jeremy Banfield into the field to have the opportunity to "capture" an elk calf that will be weighed and tagged for information. This is a once in a lifetime experience.

That night, there will also be a Progressive Raffle where a $20 ticket will get you a chance on a Savage Axis II .308 with engraved stock by Whitetail Woodcrafters and includes 3-9x40 Bushnell Scope Patriot Predator 6.5. The winner of the rifle will be entered with the winners from our other banquets for a chance to win a guided elk hunt for two hunters at Fishtail Ranch in Chama, New Mexico!

KECA has experienced phenomenal growth and support since we started in December of 2009. We have attracted over 4 million guests through the gates at the Elk Country Visitor Center, in 2023 we welcomed 400,000 visitors We also improved more than 700 acres of habitat for elk and a wide variety of other wildlife across Pennsylvania's Elk County. Through your generous support, Pennsylvania's elk country continues to be enhanced and supported for future generations.

On behalf of the Ah'tic Chapter, we are looking forward to seeing you on our banquet night where you will see the entire picture and all the amazing work that is being done.
