Do you have what it takes to win The People's Choice and the overall competition during the Kill the Grill BBQ Event on July 8th, 2023? The team with the most combination of points for all meat categories (Chicken, Ribs, and Brisket) will win the Kill the Grill competition and receive a wicked awesome prize. We are asking you to bring 10lbs of Chicken, Ribs, or Brisket for visitors to sample. This will give the visitors an opportunity to donate money into a fish bowl at your stand to vote for your BBQ and the People's Choice award. The team that raises the most money will win the People's Choice award. All proceeds will benefit the Keystone Elk Country Alliance. You may also sell your products during the event. Please refer to the participation packet for the rest of the rules and regulations (sent after you register).

Please make checks payable to: KECA

Waiver of Liability: Kill The Grill BBQ contest, including its officers, sponsors and/or associates and the contestants agree that Kill The Grill BBQ contest will not be responsible for any loss, damage or injury. I further hereby grant full permission to KECA and Kill The Grill BBQ contest to use photographs for promotional purposes.
